- On 2 November 1950 the wooden barracks of Camp Dolle at Letzling Heath (M 53/Y 53) had been removed. ☐ the barracks from Camp Dolle had been moved to Camp Born and reconstructed there. The road south of Steinberge was guarded by a sentry who prevented civilians from using the road. ☐ the road led to Camp Born. ☐

Two signboards posted on the road and pointing toward Born bore the following inscriptions:

× ОЗОВАНЕЦОВА

АПОГОНА
ЛОАНТОН
А № 3

**

- On 3 November, the camp in the woods south of Hottendorf was only very lightly occupied. The main gate of the camp stood open and was not guarded. One T-34 tank was seen in the camp area. ☐

- On 3 November the camp south of Boergitz was vacant. The doors and windows of the two brick buildings, each of which had a billeting capacity of about 150 men, were boarded up. **

- * ☐ Comment. ☐ Camp Born was vacant on 26 October 1950. ☐ The motor vehicles of the 207th Mtz Rifle Div, the 19th Gds Mecz Div, and headquarters units of the IX Mtz Rifle Corps, which were observed on 2 November, probably hauled disassembled barracks sections from Camp Dolle. The signboards read "Economy Ovanesov" and "To firing lane A, No 3". Ovanesov may have been the name of the commanding officer of a component unit of the 19th Gds Mecz Div which held its summer exercises in the Born-Dolle area.
